Where there are joint registered holders of any share any one of such persons may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy in respect of such share as if he was solely entitled thereto; and if more than one of such joint-holders be present at any meeting either personally or by proxy, then one of the said persons, so present whose name stands first on the Register in respect of such shares alone shall be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any share is registered shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed joint holders thereof.

On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy, and a person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

Modification of Rights :

All or any of the rights attached to the different classes of shares of the Company (unless otherwise provided by the terms of the issue of the shares of that class) may subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and clause 51 of the Articles of Association of the Company be varied either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three fourth of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

Restrictions on the Right to Transfer Shares :

No transfer of a share shall be registered unless an instrument of transfer in accordance with section 108 of the Act, duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor any by or on behalf of the transferee has been delivered to the Company together with the certificate or, if no such certificate is in existence, the letter of allotment of the shares.

Application for the registration of the transfer of a share may be made either by the transferor or the transferee provided that where such application is made by the transferor no registration shall in case of a partly paid share be effected, unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by section 110 of the Act and subject to the provisions of these articles. The Company shall, unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice enter in the Register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration of the transfer was made by the transferee.

The Company's Articles of Association provide that subject to Section 111 of the Companies Act, 1956, the Board without assigning any reason, may within two months from the date on which the instrument was delivered to the Company may refuse to register any transfer of or the transmission by operation of law of the right to a share.

No transfer shall be made to a minor or a person of unsound mind unless the shares are fully paid-up. No more than three persons shall be registered as joint holders of any shares.

Lien :

The Company has a first and paramount lien upon shares, not being fully paid-up shares, registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly hold) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for moneys called or payable at fixed time in respect of such share, whether the time for payment thereof shall have actually arrived or not and no equitable interest in any shares shall be created except upon the footing and condition that articles 30 is to have full effect. Such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of transfer of a share operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such share.

Managing Director :

Subject to the provisions of section 316 and 317 of the Act, the Board may from time to time appoint one or more Directors to be Managing Director or Managing Directors of the Company either for fixed term not exceeding five years for which he is to hold such office, and may from time to time (subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company) remove or dismiss him from office and appoint another in his place.

Subject to the provisions of section 309, 310 and 311 of the Act, a Managing Director shall, in addition to the remuneration payable to him as a Director of the Company under the Articles of the Company receive such additional remuneration as may from time to time be sanctioned by the Company. Presently the Company does not have any Managing Director.

Directions and Restriction on their Powers :

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Control of the Company shall be vested in the Board who shall be entitled to exercise all such acts and things as the Company is authorised to exercise and do. Provided that the Board shall not exercise any power or do any act or thing which is directed or required whether by the Act, or any other statute or by the Memorandum of the Company or by the Articles or otherwise, to be exercised or done by the Company in general meeting.

Provided further that in exercising any such power or doing any such act or thing, the Board shall be subject to the provisions in that behalf contained in the Act or any other Statute or in the Memorandum of the Company or in the Articles or in any regulations not inconsistent therewith and duly made thereunder, including regulation made by the Company in general meeting but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation has not been made.

Until otherwise determined in the general meeting by Special Resolution the number of the Directors of the Company shall not be less than three and not more than nine. The Company in general meeting may from time to time increase or reduce the number of Directors within the limit fixed as above.

The Board shall have power, at any time and from time to time, to appoint any person as a Director as an addition to the Board but so that the total number of Directors shall not any time exceed the maximum number fixed by the Articles. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting of the Company and shall then be eligible for re-election.

In the event of the Company borrowing any money from the Industrial Financial Corporation or Life Insurance Corporation of India or any Government Body or Financial Institution or Bank while any money remains due to the said Corporation or the Government Body, or the Institution, the said Corporation or the Government Body and Institution or Bank shall have and may exercise the rights and powers to appoint from time to time any person or persons to be Director or Directors of the Company. Any person or persons so appointed at any time may be removed from office by the said Corporation or Government Body who may from the time of such removal or in case of death or resignation of the person or persons so appointed, appoint any other persons in his/their place, any such appointment or removal shall be in writing signed by the Corporation or Government Body and served on the Company. Such nominated Directors shall not be required to hold any qualification shares nor they will be liable to retire by rotation provided that at no time the Directors not liable for retirement should not exceed 1/3rd of the number of the Directors of the Company for time being.

The Directors are not required to hold any qualification shares.

Remuneration of Directors :

Unless otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting, each Director shall be entitled to receive out of the funds of the Company for his services in attending meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board, a fee not exceeding Rs. 250/- per meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board attended by him, as may be determined by the Board from time to time. All other remuneration, if any, payable by the Company to each Director, in the whole or part time employment of the Company shall be determined in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company and the Companies Act, 1956.

The Directors shall be entitled to be paid their reasonable travelling and hotel and other expenses incurred in connection of their attending Board and Committee meeting or otherwise incurred in the execution of their duties as Director.

If any Director, being willing is called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from his usual place of residence for any of the purpose of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the
