Rights of the Equity Shareholders :

Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and to the Articles of Association of the Company the profits of the Company from time to time determined to be divided, in respect of any year or other period shall be applied, subject to the payment of preferential dividend, in the payment of a dividend to the holders of the Equity Shares of the Company in proportion to the amount paid up on the Equity Shares held by them respectively and where capital is paid up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest such capital shall not rank for dividends or confer a right to participate in profit.

Subject to the rights of the holder of the Preference Shares of the Company the Equity Shareholders shall be entitled to be repaid the amount of capital paid up on such shares and all surplus assets thereafter shall belong to the holders of the Equity Shares in proportion to the amount paid or which ought to have been paid on the Equity Shares held by them respectively at the commencement of the winding up. If however, the assets shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the Shares held by them respectively.

Voting Rights :

The Articles of Association of the Company provide inter alia that on a show of hands every member present in person and being holder of Equity Shares shall have one vote and every person either as general proxy on behalf of the holder of Equity Share if he is not entitled to vote in his own right, or as a duly authorised representative of a body corporate being a holder of Equity Shares, shall have one vote and on poll the voting right of Equity Shareholders shall be as specified in Section 87 of the Companies Act, 1956.

The Articles of Association of the Company also provide that no Member shall be entitled to exercise any voting right either personally or by proxy at any meeting of the Company in respect of any shares registered in his name on which any calls or other sums presently payable by him have not been paid or in regard to which the Company has and has exercised any right of lien.

Modification of Rights :

All or any of the rights attached to the different classes of share of the Company (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may subject to the provisions of the Act be varied either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourth of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.

Restriction on the Right to Transfer Share :

The Company's Articles of Association provides that subject to Section 111 of the Companies Act, 1956 the Board without assigning any reason, may within two months from the date on which the instrument was delivered to the Company refuse to register any transfer of or the transmission by operation of law of the right to share.

No transfer shall be made to a minor or a person of unsound mind.

Lien :

The Company has a first and paramount lien upon Share not being a fully paid up Share registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly held) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for monies called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such Shares whether the time for payment thereof shall have actually arrived or not and no Equity interest in any Shares shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 13 is to have full effect. Such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such Shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of a Share shall operate as a waiver of the Companies lien, if any, on such Shares.

Managing Directors :

Subject to the provisions of Section 316 & 317 of the Act, the Board may from time to time, appoint one or more Directors to be Managing Director or Managing Directors of the Company, either for a fixed term not exceeding five years for which he is to hold such office, and may, from time to time (subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company) remove or dismiss him from office and appoint another in his place.

Subject to the provisions of Section 309, 310 and 311 of the Act, a Managing Director shall, in addition to the remuneration payable to him as a Director of the Company under the Articles of the Company, receive such additional remuneration as may from time to time be sanctioned by the Company.

Directors and Restrictions on their Powers :

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the control of the Company shall be vested in the Board who shall be entitled to exercise all such powers, and to do all such acts and things as the Company is authorised to exercise and do. Provided that the Board shall not exercise any power or do any act or thing which is directed or required whether by the act or any other statute or by the Memorandum of the Company or by the Articles or otherwise, to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting.

Provided further that in exercising any such power or doing any such act or thing, the Board shall be subject to the provisions in that behalf contained in the Act or any other statute or in the Memorandum of the Company or in these Articles or in any regulation not inconsistent therewith and duly made thereunder, including regulation made by the Company in general meeting, but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Until otherwise determined in the general meeting, by special resolution the number of the Directors of the Company shall not be less than three nor more than twelve. The Company in general meeting may from time to time increase or reduce the number of Directors within the limit fixed as above.

The Board shall have power, at any time and from time to time, to appoint any person as a Director as an addition to the Board but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by these Articles. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting of the Company and shall than be eligible for re-election.

The Articles of Association contain (inter alia) provisions to the following effect :

The Directors are not required to hold any qualification shares.

Unless otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting each Director shall be entitled to receive, out of the fund of the Company for his services in attending meetings of the Board or a Committee of the Board a fee not exceeding Rs. 250/- per meeting of the Board or Committee of the Board attended by him, as may be determined by the Board from time to time. (All other remuneration, if any, payable by the Company to each Director whether in respect of his service as a Managing Director, in the whole or part-time employment of the Company shall be determined in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company and of the Act).

The Directors shall be entitled to be paid their reasonable travelling and hotel and other expenses incurred in consequence of their attending Board and Committee meetings or otherwise incurred in the execution of their duties as Directors.

If any, Director, being willing, shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from his usual place of residence for any of the purposes of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the Company or any member of a committee of the Board then, subject to Sections 198, 309, 310 of Act, the Board may remunerate the Directors so doing either by a fixed sum or by a percentage of profits or otherwise and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for any other remuneration to which he may be entitled.

Interest of Promoters & Directors :

The Promoters and Directors are or may be deemed interested to the extent of remuneration to which they are entitled under the Company's Articles of Association and to the extent of any share in the Company held by them or which may be subscribed by and allotted to them.

Indemnity :

The Articles of Association of the Company provide that every Director or Officer of the Company or any person whether officer of Company or not employed by the Company and any person appointed as Auditor shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Company against all liabilities incurred by him as such Director, Officer, Employee or Auditor in defending any proceedings, whether Civil or Criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under Section 633 of the Act, in which relief is granted to him by the Court.
